No 1902-07] The Police Department, which is a division of the Public Security Department, is established in and for the Hawthorne district. The designated competent authority referred to in the general legislation governing the city police departments and used in this chapter shall be the Mayor of Hawthorne. The table of the Organisation of the Hawthorne Police Department is as follows: B. Two captains, one to be appointed captain of the patrol and one as captain of operations. D. Six sergeants. [Amended 6-17-2009 ord. No 1982-09; 8-16-2017 pursuant to Ord. No 2193-17] E. Such officers, who may be considered necessary or fit for the execution of official law enforcement agencies but are nevertheless subject to the availability of funds in the municipal budget. F. Such other staff, including dispatchers, matrons, probation officers and special police, which may be considered necessary or suitable for the operation of the police department but are nevertheless subject to the availability of funds in the municipal budget. G. The eligible number of officers in each rank shall be increased from time to time so that the competent authority, at its discretion, may permanently appoint or promote an officer to replace any master, lieutenant or sergeant who is no longer on active duty because of approved and accepted terminal leave. [Added 2-4-2015 ord. No. 2128-15] A. The Head of the Police Department is known as the Chief of Police and is directly hawthorne for their efficiency and normal operation and in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes of New Jersey: (1) Administer and enforce rules and regulations and specific emergency guidelines for the discipline of the Ministry and its officials and personnel. (2) To perform, perform and perform the functions, powers and duties of the Ministry. (3) Prescribe the duties and assignments of all subordinates and other personnel. (4) Delegate such powers as it deems necessary for the performance of the ministry's activities under its authority and supervision. B. Among other duties, the Chief of Police will report in writing to the mayor of hawthorne district every month on all matters relating to the department, give a full record of all arrests and complaints and make such recommendations as, in his view, increase the efficiency of the department. C. In the absence or disability of the Chief, the future Commanding Officer shall assume his duties in order of precedence. Police Department: A. Maintaining public peace. B. Protect life and property. C. Detect, arrest and prosecute the perpetrators of New Jersey law and ceremonies of the Hawthorne borough. D. Direct and traffic management. E. Ensure participation and protection during emergencies. F. Give a court appearance. G. Cooperate with all other law enforcement agencies. H. Provide training for the efficiency of its members and officers. No permanent member or officer of the Police Department may be suspended, removed, fined or reduced in rank for any other cause, such as incapacity for work, misconduct or disobedience, as provided for in the New Jersey Statutes and police department rules and regulations. This does not apply to any reduction in the number of employees introduced by the municipality. The replacement of the members of the department shall be determined as defined in a contract agreed by the district and by a recognised negotiating representative of the members and officers of the department when they perform actual service on the assignment of the Chief of Police. The competent authority shall have the power to designate as many special law enforcement agencies as provided for in the New Jersey statutes, and any specific appointments of law enforcement authorities shall comply with the Statutes of New Jersey, each of which shall be subject to the authority of the Chief of Police. A. Appointments and promotions within the Hawthorne Police Department are being made by the mayor of hawthorne, however, depending on the availability of funds in the municipal budget. B. Before appointment or promotion, the Mayor shall first notify the official of his intention to make such appointment or promotion. The notification of intent shall be made at least 20 days before the same application is made and shall take effect from the time of signing and taking the oath. office with a city official. C. In the case of such promotion within a department, the Mayor shall not elevate any member to a rank other than that immediately replacing the rank then held by the member. [Amended 6-17-2009 pursuant to Ord. 1982-09] D. In the event of promotion from patrol officer to sergeant rank, the Mayor shall carry out such promotion from eight officers who have the most years of service or senior service. In the event of promotion to lieutenant from sergeant or lieutenant captain, the mayor shall consider as candidates all officers in a lower title. When deciding on promotion, the Mayor shall give due consideration to the length and value of the service and shall give priority to senior years of service. The Mayor also does not take into account in any particular order: the recommendation of the Chief of Police; oral interviews with all candidates eligible for promotion; material in candidates' personal files; and all written material submitted by the tenderers. At the time when the mayor gives notice of the intention to carry out the promotion with the official, as required by Section 25-9B, the Mayor shall provide written notice to all eligible applicants in support of his intention to carry out the promotion and the decisions he has reached. [Amended 6-17-2009 ord. No 1982-09; 5-16-2012 by ord. No 2065-12; 2-15-2017 under ord. 2173-17] E. Within seven days of the date of notification given by the Mayor to eligible candidates in accordance with § 25-9D, any eligible candidate harmed by the decision may submit a written appeal letter to the mayor's decision. That appeal shall state the reasons for or the grounds for the appeal and shall be lodged with the Mayor. The Mayor shall consider the appeal and evaluate the substance of the appeal on a case-by-case basis. Appeals may deal with any aspect of the promotional process; however, documents used by the mayor to evaluate any other candidate are not available to the appellant. The appellant can only display the documents used to evaluate the appellant. If the mayor decides that the appeal is valid and affects the promotional decision, the appellant may be permitted to reconsider. If, as a result of an appeal lodged in accordance with this Section, the Mayor has taken a different promotion decision, he shall notify all tenderers in writing and submit a new written notification to the official. [Added 5-16-2012 ord. No. 2065-12] Any person appointed to the permanent position of police officer shall serve a probationary period of one year (12 months), from the date of graduation of the seconded police academy or from the date of his appointment, unless that person is required to attend the police academy. During this probationary period, this person is known as a probationary police officer. The continuation of service depends on the conduct of the appointee and on the carry out their duties. Applications for appointment to the Police Department testing, guidance, eligibility and review and selection of candidates shall comply with the rules and regulations recommended by the Chief and accepted by the Mayor. The rules and regulations governing the conduct and operation of the police force and the discipline of its members may be adopted and belittled by the Mayor. A. Purpose. For the convenience of those individuals and entities who use the services of off-duty law enforcement from the Hawthorne Police Department and allow outdoor employment of city police while off duty, Borough hereby establishes a policy regarding the use of said officers. (1) Members of the police department may recruit police-related work for private employers or school districts only during extrajudicial hours and at a time when they do not interfere with the effective performance of regular or emergency services for the borough. (2) Any person or entity wishing to employ an off-duty police force shall first obtain the approval of the Chief of Police, which shall first be granted if, in the opinion of the Chief, such employment would not be contrary to the effective functioning and reputation of the police department and would not unduly or jeopardise the safety of the officer or officers who are to carry out the work. B. (1) Any person or entity requesting the services of an off-duty law enforcement officer in the Hawthorne Police Department shall estimate the number of hours these law enforcement agencies are required, which estimate shall be approved in writing by the Chief of Police, and shall establish a tied account with the Borough Treasurer of the Borough by depositing an amount sufficient to cover the reimbursement rates and administrative fees set out in Subsection D of this Agreement for the total estimated hours of service. (2) Before sending any request for the services of off-duty law enforcement officers, the Chief of Police or his inverter shall verify that the balance of the conditional account of the person or entity requesting the services is sufficient to cover the compensation and charges for the number of hours specified in the request for services. The Chief of Police shall not charge any person or entity for services unless all fees and compensation claimed in the manner described above have been imposed on the Treasurer of the Borough. No official may provide any such services for more than specified in the request for services. (3) Where funds in such a conditional account are to be exhausted, the services of off-duty law enforcement officers will cease and requests for further or future services will not be carried out or cleared until the additional funds have been deposited into the tied account in the manner prescribed above. 4. The person or entity requesting such services shall be responsible for sufficient funds remain in the conditional account to prevent any interruption of services. (5) Notwithstanding the above, in an emergency and in the event that the establishment of a tied account is not possible, police services may be rendered off-duty in this case. In this case, the person requesting such a service will hand over the payment within 24 hours of billing. (6) Notwithstanding the above, no commitment deposit is required for services to be provided to any local civil, religious or charitable organisation for any event in support of its civil, religious or charitable purposes. C. Request for services. All requests by the borough for off-duty law enforcement services in the Hawthorne Police Department for a period of one week or more shall be sent to the Chief of Police for posting at least 10 days before such services are required. Any law enforcement officer, if so employed in a borough, shall be treated as an employee of the borough; provided that wages earned for work outside the service are not applicable to the retirement benefits of law enforcement officials so employed, nor shall hours worked out of work in any event be regarded as countervailable as overtime. D. Rates of refund; an administrative fee; payments for services. [Amended 2-15-2017 ord. No 2173-17] (1) The rates of compensation for the conclusion of contracts for the services of off-duty law enforcement officers are fixed by the Council by a resolution which may be amended from time to time. (a) Rate of refund: fixed by the municipality. (b) An additional fee of USD 8 per hour is hereby fixed to cover the administrative, overhead and out-of-pocket expenses of the Hawthorne District. (c) An additional fee of USD 15 per hour is hereby fixed to cover the costs of a police vehicle, if provided. (2) The refund rates set out in this document, including administrative charges and vehicle costs, may be amended from time to time by a resolution duly adopted by hawthorne city council. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, it is agreed that the rate of compensation to be paid to the Hawthorne Board of Education using the services of off-duty law enforcement for sporting events sanctioned by the Board of Education is $110 per event. Effective July 1, 2017, the rate will be increased to $120 per event. The rate can then be amended by a resolution duly adopted by Hawthorne City Council. The rate for administrative costs and the use of vehicles is set elsewhere in this document. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, it is agreed that the reimbursement rate to be paid to hawthorne Board of Education using the services of off-duty law enforcement at Hawthorne Public Schools must be $25 an hour. The rate may be by a resolution duly adopted by the City Council. The administrative and vehicle use costs set out elsewhere in this document shall not apply to such contract work. [Added 4-18-2018 ord. No. 2210-18] [Added 7-10-2019 ord. No. 2236-19] A. Applicability. This section covers the criminal history of background checks of staff and volunteers involved in programmes involving minors. B. Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings: BOROUGH-sponsored programs All programs sponsored by Borough that provide and use Borough facilities and/or Borough property, and/or are covered under Borough Insurance. CRIMINAL RECORD BACKGROUND CHECK Whether a person has a criminal record by cross-reference to the name, date of birth, Social Security number and/or fingerprints with those on file with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the New Jersey State Police and any agency deemed necessary by the Borough of Hawthorne to obtain basic information from criminal history. Criminal record information Information collected by criminal justice authorities concerning persons and stored in computerised databases of courts in New Jersey and/or law enforcement agencies or computer repositories of other States containing criminal record information consisting of identifiable descriptions and records of arrests, indictments or other formal offenses and any dispositions resulting therefrom, including convictions, dismissals, corrective supervision and release. Hawthorne County Police Department. PURPOSE OF NON-CRIMINAL JUSTICE Any purpose, other than the exercise of criminal justice or the purpose of criminal justice, including employment and licensing, for which the applicant submits fingerprints or name search applications by eligible applicants, as required or permitted by federal or state law, rule or regulation, executive order, provision of administrative code, local authority, resolution or this Article, any law enforcement agency or computer repository of other States for the dissemination of criminal record information. NON-PROFIT ORGANISATION SERVING YOUTH OR ORGANIZATION Corporation, association or other organization established under Title 15 revised Statutes in New Jersey, Title 15A of the Revised Statutes in New Jersey or other laws of that State, but excluding public and non-public schools which provide recreational, cultural, charitable, social or other activities or services to persons under the age of 18 and are exempt from federal income taxes. C. Requests for criminal background checks. (1) Borough requires all employees and volunteers of a nonprofit organization serving youth, including employees or volunteers of borough-sponsored youth serving programs, to apply through the Ministry to contract the entity to conduct criminal record a review of each potential and current employee or volunteer of the organisation. The same shall not apply to arbitrators, game officials or similarly employed persons. A background check of a criminal record at the same level carried out by the same independent third-party agency contracted by Borough within one year of the date of applying for the post of employee or volunteer of a non-profit organisation serving youth shall be accepted by the borough as a valid criminal record check. Where a non-profit organisation serving young people can demonstrate the implementation of a background check programme for criminal history equal to or more stringent than the programme implemented by an independent third-party agency contracted to, the borough administrator may, at its discretion, grant an exemption from the requirements of this Section. (2) The borough will only facilitate the verification of a criminal record once the written consent of a potential or current employee or volunteer has been received. D. Terms of service exclusion. (1) A person may be disqualified from serving as an employee or volunteer of a nonprofit organization serving youth or an employee or volunteer in a Borough-sponsored youth serving program, if that person has a criminal record a background check reveals a record of the conviction of any of the following offenses or crimes: (a) In New Jersey, any offense or disorderly conduct of persons offense: [1] N.J.S.A. 2C:11, murder: all offenses. [2] N.J.S.A. 2C:12, aggravated assault; threatening; threats: all crimes. [3] N.J.S.A. 2c:13, kidnapping: all crimes. [4] N.J.S.A. 2C:14, sexual offences: all offenses. [5] N.J.S.A. 2C:15, robbery: all crimes. [6] N.J.S.A. 2C:24, crimes against family, children and incompetent: all crimes. [7] N.J.S.A. 2C:35, controlled hazardous substances: all offenses except paragraph (4) of subsection (a) N.J.S.A. 2C:35-10. (b) In any other State or jurisdiction, conduct which, if committed in New Jersey, would constitute any of the offenses or disorderly conduct of the offences described in subsection D (1) (a). (c) In New Jersey or any other jurisdiction, a third-offense conviction driving under intoxication under N.J.S.A. 39:4-50 or N.J.S.A. 39:4-50 (a), or equivalent status in another jurisdiction, or first and second offense convictions within five years of the date of application. (2) For the purposes of interpreting the information recorded in the criminal record to determine the qualifications of an employee or volunteer of a non-profit organisation serving youth and/or of an employee or volunteer involved in neighbourhood-sponsored programmes involving minors, the borough presumes that the staff member or volunteer is innocent of any charges or arrests for which there is no final disposition on the record. (3) The determination of whether the information contained in the penalties are sufficient to exclude the exclusion of or volunteer shall be carried out by the contracting entity contracting Hawthorne. In the event that the contracting authority does not provide such a service, the Chief of Police or its denomintor shall determine. The district manager shall notify a person who is disqualified from employment or is serving as a volunteer because of the results of a criminal record check that he or she has been disqualified. A disqualified person shall be entitled to lodge an appeal with the Criminal Control Board, which was set up under subsection H.E. Submission and exchange of background information. (1) Potential or current staff and volunteers of non-profit organisations serving young people and/or staff and volunteers of borough-sponsored programmes involving minors shall submit their names, addresses, fingerprints, if required by the contracting entity, and other information requested by that entity, as well as the organisation's written consent to carry out a criminal record check. The organisation shall submit this documentation to the designated contracting entity coordinating the review. Thereafter, all subsequent verifications shall be submitted to the designated contracting entity every three years after the date of the initial check. (2) The contracting authority shall act as a clearing office for the collection and dissemination of information obtained as a result of carrying out a criminal record check pursuant to this Article. (3) The borough may, at its discretion, carry out the services of an authorised entity to carry out a review of criminal records authorised under this Article. (4) Failure or refusal of consent of any person to such a criminal background check justifies the disqualification of such person. In addition, the inability of any youth organisation to comply with all the requirements of this Section or the rules proclaimed under them may result in action against such organisation of the Hawthorne or Hawthorne District Recreation Board, including but not limited to the suspension of any use of borough facilities. F. Access and use restrictions. (1) Access to information from the past in criminal records for the purposes of non-criminal justice, including licensing and employment, is restricted to eligible workers in a non-profit organisation serving youth and/or in a borough-sponsored programme involving minors, on the basis of the need to know, as authorised by federal or state law, rule or regulation, executive order, administrative code or local order or order concerning the collection and dissemination of information from the history of penalties obtained pursuant to this Article. (2) Such persons or organisations restrict the use of information from e-records in the criminal record solely for the legitimate purpose for which it was obtained and the information provided from the e-records in the criminal record disseminated to persons or organisations which are not authorised to receive records for authorised purposes. The use of this record shall be limited solely to the authorised purposes for which it was given and shall not be disseminated to any unauthorized persons. This record shall be destroyed as soon as it has been used for specified and authorised purposes. Any person violating federal or state regulations governing access to criminal record information may be subject to criminal and/or civil penalties. G. Call for message accuracy. If this criminal record may disqualify the applicant or an existing employee or volunteer for any purpose, the borough shall provide the disqualified person with the opportunity to question the accuracy of the information contained in the criminal record. A disqualified person must have a reasonable period of time to challenge and correct that record. The person is not found guilty of any charges or arrests for which no final dispositions appearing on the record are given. H. (1) Criminal background check of appeal proceedings. If a criminal background check disqualifies an employee or volunteer or denies an objection regarding the accuracy of a criminal history notice, the employee or volunteer may appeal against that decision by lodging a written notice of appeal in the Hawthorne borough no later than 20 days after the decision has been taken from the city administrator. Any appeal requested shall be made before the Board of Appeal for the Control of Crime. (2) Criminal review by the Board of Appeal. In order to monitor and supervise the enforcement of this article by the administrator of the borough, the Hawthorne borough hereby establishes a criminal review of the Board of Appeal, which consists of three members: the Chief of Police, the Borough Administrator and the Borough Attorney. (3) Powers of the Board of Appeal. The Criminal Review Board is granted and has and exercises, among other powers in this document granted, all powers necessary and appropriate to implement and implement the purposes of this Article, including but not limited to hearing and deciding the dismissal of employees and volunteers dissatisfied with the determination of criminal background checks related to the disqualification of an employee or volunteer and/or the accuracy of the criminal record.
